To DIRECTOR.

1. With reference to the execution of the points in your instructions [1 group garbled], I am waiting for documentary material [MATERIAL] from THERAPEUTIST [THERAPEVT][i] on the training of fighter pilots. As regards the material on the British Expeditionary Force [EKSPEDITSIONNAYA ARMIYA] we have prepared ad hoc [K OKAZII] a translation of official material on organisation and fighting in France and of a report by WRITER [PISATEL'] [ii], who took part in the evacuation.
2. MARK [iii] has had a meeting with BAUER [BAUER][iv] in CHESTER. It is not known yet where the next meeting will be because of his posting. I am awaiting a letter from him.
3. MIN [v] has been transferred to work in the Consulate. I gave him [B% instructions] to look out for interesting people and intelligence [INFORMATsIYA] from visitors.
4. On 29th July six LINGUAPHONE courses with records [1 group garbled] addressed to DUBININ [vi] in MOSCOW. Inform [1 group unidentified].
5. On 27th September the military literature you asked for [vii] was despatched by ordinary mail.
6. In view of the impending arrival of SKLYAROV [viii] I am awaiting your instructions on how to hand everything over to him including matters

[R% relating to agents]. Here there should be one master, but round the clock there should be two residences and an intelligence [INFORMATIONNYJ] [R% officer] as at present.

7. I request permission to send a SAUSAGE-DEALER [KOLBASNIKI][ix] incendiary bomb [R% that has been rendered safe] and components of British A.A. shells when the opportunity presents itself.

8. On 2nd October MUSE [MUSEK][x] worked on a wavelength of 34 metres and crystal 44.1. Callsign KHX. The transmitter worked normally. The aerial ammeter showed 0.7 A; the aerial was led outside. You were heard at [strength][a] seven. Listen out for here as a check on Monday 7th October at 6.30 GMT on a wavelength of 44.1 metres.
